DIARY NOTES

DD/S

29 May 1963

25X1A

1. Jim Garrison reported that the Office of Logistics has had no business with the [REDACTED] since 1961. I asked him to check with the Technical Services Division and the Office of Special Activities to see if they could be the culprits in the case which I mentioned in yesterday's Diary Notes.

2. [REDACTED] advised me not to use the Director's name on any cable or in any letter unless specific permission is obtained in each case. I thanked him for this advice and have advised the Office of Communications accordingly.

[REDACTED]
with CIA and, in fact, will not be available for at least another year. (This all sounds like a tempest in a teapot based on a great deal of misinformation.)

5. Sherman Kent advised me this morning that [REDACTED] would be coming on board very shortly. (I have asked Emmett Echols to get in touch with Sherman and to take care of the personnel action. I have also asked Jim Garrison to explore how best to provide a car and to advise me.)

7. [REDACTED] was down to see me again about [REDACTED] who has been sick recently. I told him that [REDACTED] and I had agreed that we would change his assignment shortly after 1 July 1963. This was entirely satisfactory to Walt. A9a

9. At my request Emmett Echols advised that, should [REDACTED] be retired for disability, his benefits would be as follows: He has eighteen years and three months of service. His "high 5" average is $18,004. He would receive 40 per cent of this, or $7,201 per annum. Should he elect survival benefits, this would be reduced to $6,980 per annum and would provide survivor benefits of $3,242 per annum to his widow in case of his death. 25X1A9a
